

Distribution of log-transformed antibody levels

The distribution of the response variable is Normal so no transformations need to be applied.